Dermatological surgery workshop - enrolling now

The Australasian College of Dermatologists (ACD), in collaboration with the RACGP and ACRRM, are holding a face-to-face dermatological skills workshop. The weekend workshop is available to all GPs, GP registrars and ACD training program registrars seeking to improve and expand their dermatological surgery techniques, including cryotherapy, excisions and flap repairs. Participants need to complete an online education activity before participating in this workshop. The workshop takes place 4 – 6 November 2011 in Coogee Beach, Sydney. Fees apply for the workshop and online activity.
