

event

62 High Street, Ararat Vic 3377, PO Box 127, Ararat Vic 3377
p: (03) 5352 4804 f: (03) 5352 5495 e: ararat@westvicdiv.asn.au

To: GPs and medical students

You are invited to attend

Investigating a new breast symptom

Speaker	Ms Ruth Bollard, General breast & endocrine specialist surgeon, Ballarat Specialist Centre
Date/Time:	Thursday, 23 February 2012 at 6.45pm – 9.30pm
Venue:	Function Room, Mercure Horsham, 118 Baillie Street, Horsham (Cnr Urquhart and Baillie Streets) p: 5381 7555
Sponsor:	 This education was developed by the National Breast and Ovarian Cancer Centre and is brought to you by Cancer Council Victoria
Cost:	No cost
Other details:	Meal provided. (If you will be late arriving please let Annette know and we can arrange to have your meal held for you) Cancellation fee of $27.50 applies after 20 February.
Points	This activity is approved for participants to earn 4 Category 2 points in the RACGP QI&CPD program.
RSVP	RSVP is essential by 20 February to allow time to confirm catering. Please reply to Annette Metcalfe – p: 5352 4804, f: 5352 5495 or e: a.metcalfe@westvicdiv.asn.au

I would like to attend Register online now

Name:
Clinic:
Phone:	Email:
Special dietary requirements:

Investigating a new breast symptom
Thursday, 23 February 2012
6.45pm – Mercure Horsham

program

6.45pm – Arrival and registration

7.00pm – Meal

7.15pm – Ruth Bollard – Investigating a new breast symptom presentation

9.15pm – Questions

9.25pm – Evaluation

9.30pm – Close

Learning objectives:

- Describe the mortality trends for breast cancer in Australia
- Understand the components of the triple test
- Adopt a systematic approach to the investigation of a new breast symptom